EAST BOOTHBAY - Edward Norris Poore, 90, died peacefully Friday Jan. 13, 2006 at the Maine Veteran's Home in Scarborough, surrounded by family.

Edward Norris Poore

Mr. Poore was born on the fourth of July in East Boothbay, the son of Nathaniel and Annie Poore and the last remaining of 17 brothers and sisters.

Edward Norris Poore wore many different hats in his lifetime. He spent six years (two hitches) as ship's cook on the Coast Guard Cutter, Mojave.

He was not a bad cook and was very proud of his career, often remarking, "I've never lost a man..."

Mr. Poore was well-known throughout the Boothbay region. There were very few who could not recognize the twinkle in his eye or his contagious smile.

Though his disposition was sunny, the weather often was not and Mr. Poore became a bit of a legend when it came to predicting it. His weather predictions were quoted in the local newspaper and were correct. Just before his death, Mr. Poore predicted a winter with "very little snow" and that the Farmer's Almanac was wrong. It is still in dispute whether the Almanac or Mr. Poore has the better track record, but let's just say, winters could be very bleak now that we must rely solely on the Almanac.

Mr. Poore worked in local shipyards, as a lobsterman, a stop-seiner, and as a caretaker to cottages on Ocean Point. He treated many of his cottages and their owners as his patients. Mr. Poore loved the summertime, loved to work and considered many of his customers treasured friends.

Edward Poore married the love of his life, Anna Ruby Poore, on April 4, 1939. They shared a beautiful life together and enjoyed watching their three children grow. In their eyes, nothing was more important than their family. Most every holiday was spent together and every July 4th there was a birthday party with children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and friends in attendance.

In 1999, a month before their 60th wedding anniversary, Edward lost his Anna. It broke his heart and it was very hard for Edward to live without his love.

He was a lifetime member of Bayview Masonic Lodge.

Edward is survived by a son, Rodney E. Poore and wife Karen of Scarborough; two daughters, Mary Brown of Niantic, Conn., and Martha Reed and husband Alan of Boothbay; eight grandchildren, Diana Zajak of Niantic, Conn., Jennifer Price of Fayetteville, N.C., Nathan Poore of Kennebunk; Michael Brown of Norwich, Conn., Andrew Poore of Falmouth, Erin Dupee of Old Orchard Beach, Tim Reed of Portland, and Jamie Reed of Fresno, Calif.; and nine great-grandchildren.

He was predeceased by his faithful companion, Sheeba, his dog who died a week earlier.

And to quote Ed, "That's just the way it is."

Visitation will be held on Friday, from 6-8 p.m., with a Masonic service at 7 p.m., at Simmons, Harrington, and Hall Funeral Home, Boothbay. A memorial service will be held 1 p.m., Saturday, Jan. 21 at the Boothbay Baptist Church. Rev. Dan McNutt and Al Roberts will officiate. Burial will be in the Oaklawn Cemetery in Boothbay Harbor.

Arrangements are entrusted to Simmons, Harrington & Hall Funeral Home and Cremation Service, Boothbay.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to:
