Darrell O. Pound, stonemason, ^{12/6/11} town selectman

ROCKPORT — Darrell "Beepe" Ordway Pound, stonemason and perfectionist who served many years on Rockport's Board of Selectmen, died Friday at the Togo Veterans Hospital. He was 82.

Mr. Pound's family remembers his strong work ethic something he learned young. He was only 11 years old when his father died, and as a boy he took a job.

PASSAGES

Each day the newspaper selects one obituary and seeks to learn more about the life of a person who has lived and worked in Maine. We look for a person who has made a mark on the community or the person's family and circle of friends in lasting ways.

"When we were going to school as kids, he chaperoned everything," she said. "I always said, 'My daddy will do it, and my daddy did it.'"

In 1959, he and his wife chaperoned the senior class trip to Washington, D.C. They had a wonderful time, and for years spoke of the visit.

His daughter said he had a big heart, and always was there for anyone who needed him, but that he was hardly a pushover.

"He was a very law-abiding person, and we'd better follow the rules," she said. "He was a strict dad and a loving dad. I don't ever remember receiving a spanking — he was one of those that when he spoke, you did what you were told."

He got his nickname, pronounced "Beep-ee," 36 years ago, after his first grandson was born. The little boy "couldn't say 'grampy,'" his daughter said. "He said 'Beepe,' and it has followed him through... Even the community calls him Beepe now."

Mr. Pound was active in his community, and was a past master and 53-year member of St. Paul's Lodge No. 82, AF & AM, Rockport, the Keystone Royal Arch Chapter 24, King Hiram's Council No. 6, Claremont Commandry No. 9, Kora Temple Shrine and Ocean View Chapter 201, Order of the Eastern Star, Rockport.

He was a selectman in Rockport, a Boy Scout leader and assistant scoutmaster, a constable in Rockport and a member of the Zoning Board of Appeals.

He met his wife, Catherine V. Annis, when he was a member of the Civilian Conservation Corps in Camden. He lived about 10 miles from her house, and often walked there to see her.

It was in the Civilian Conservation Corps that he learned stonemasonry. He practiced the craft for most of his life, and taught many others.

"There are fellows that worked under him that will tell you today that he was a hard man to work for because he was a perfectionist," his daughter said. "But they gained respect for him and they're now making their living doing what he taught them."

He was proud of his work, and enjoyed pointing it out to his children.

"He loved to have us kids go and see what he was building," his daughter said. "He could go right out until a year ago and point out, 'I topped out that chimney,' or 'I built that wall,' or 'I built that fireplace.'"

He built the fireplace at the Snow Bowl and did stone work at Children's Chapel.

Mr. Pound was born in Millinocket on Jan. 23, 1917, a son of John Thomas and Estella (Reynolds) Pound. He graduated from Stearns High School and served in the Marine Corps during World War II.

He is survived by his wife of 60 years, of Rockport; his daughter, of Rockport; two sons, David of Vista, Calif., and Darrell of Lyndonville, Vt.; three sisters, Marie Henry of Rockport, Elizabeth "Libby" Brooks of New Brunswick, Canada and Theresa Madore of Millinocket; four brothers, Lloyd of Augusta, Oswald "Ozzie" of Millinocket, Bryant "Turney" of East Hartford, Conn., and Richard "Dicky" of Augusta; eight grandchildren, four great-grandchildren and several nieces, nephews and cousins.

Visiting hours will be from 6 to 8 p.m. today at Laite & Pratt Funeral Home, 9 Mountain St., Camden. A funeral service will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at John Street United Methodist Church, Camden.

St. Paul's Lodge No. 82, AF and AM will conduct a public Masonic Memorial Service at 7 p.m. today at the funeral home.

Private interment will be Wednesday at West Rockport Cemetery.

When he died June 10, 2001, though, he was best known in Bath as Don Povich, who owned and operated Povich's Men's Shops for 40 years. In his 74 years, Mr. Povich seemed to know everyone in Bath. Or at least to dress them.

"He sold a lot of people their first pair of jeans," said his daughter, Elaine S. Povich. "And they kept coming back - I think as much for the conversation as they did for the clothes."

He ran the store with his father for years, and expanded the business to stores in Wiscasset and Damariscotta, but Povich's on Front Street in Bath was an institution until Mr. Povich closed it and retired in 1994.

As much as he loved his community, he was interested in the rest of the world, which he made a point to see. He visited Thailand, Israel, Hungary, Brazil. He cruised through the Panama Canal. And he traveled throughout the United States, soaking in the history.

At home, he was past president and financial secretary of Beth Israel Synagogue, which his father, grandfather and great-grandfather founded. He was proud of the synagogue, proud of his tradition.

Mr. Povich was born in Bath and attended Morse High School, which he left in the middle of his senior year to join the merchant marine, serving from 1945-47. He was awarded his diploma while he was in the service.

He was a 1951 graduate of the University of Maine, where he was social chairman of his fraternity, Tau Epsilon Phi. He was a past president and founder of UMaine's Merrymeeting Bay Alumni Association, a corporator of the Bath Savings Institution, a past president of the United Fund, a former director of the Chamber of Commerce, a former chairman of the Bath Merchants Association, and a former member of the Downtown Economic Development Committee and of the Personnel Service Commission of Bath. He was also a member of the New Bridge Dedication Committee.

He was a past corporator of the Bath Memorial Hospital and a former treasurer and equipment manager of the Bath Little League, a former chairman of the Downeast District of the Boy Scouts and leader of a Sea Scout troop which included boys and girls.

Mr. Povich was a member of Elks and the Polar Star Lodge of the Masons. His hobbies included boating and golf. He was a member of the Bath Country Club and treasurer of the Senior Golf League.

In December, 1951, he married his college sweetheart, Janice A. Goldstein.

Besides his widow, survivors include a son, Lon F. Povich of Wellesley, Mass.; his daughter of Laurel, Md.; and four grandchildren, Emily and Steven Povich, and Mark and Kenneth Dziengiel.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Wednesday at Beth Israel Synagogue, followed by burial at Mt. Sinai Cemetery in Portland. All are welcome to attend. The family will be at home at 3 Mill Pond Drive in Bath to receive visitors after 2:30 p.m. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Prayers will be said at the home at 6:30 p.m. all three days.
