Farmington, April 17.—General George McLellan Presson, adjutant general of Maine from 1915 to 1921 and state selective service director during World War I, died tonight at his Main Street home here. He was 86 years old.

A soldier as well as a widely known optometrist, he was captain of the Company K, National Guard, Farmington, serving that organization from 1901 until he was retired in 1938 with the rank of brigadier general.

He was a delegate to the founding convention of the American Legion in Paris and the organization's first convention in St. Louis.

He was a charter member and past commander of Thaddeus Roderick Post which after World War II changed its name to Roderick-Crosby Post.

Known as the father of optometry in Maine, Presson was an optometrist and jeweler here since 1882. He was a founder and first president of the Maine Association of Opticians and first president of the Maine Board of Examiners from 1909 to 1915.

He attended the local schools and was graduated from Philadelphia Optical School and Bowdoin Medical School.

He continued as a board member and was re-elected president of the board in 1920 in which capacity he served until 1947. In all he served 37 years on the Examining Board.

A Mason, he was a charter member of the Blue Lodge and Pilgrim Commandery. He was the oldest past master, having held office in 1893 and oldest past commander serving in that capacity in 1914. He was also a member of the Chapter, Council and Kora Temple Shrine.

A baseball fan, General Presson was Franklin County's number one National pastime enthusiast. He was the first in this area to make his own mitt for catching in the earlier days. Nothing was ever permitted to keep him away from Hippach Field on the day or night of a ball game. He never missed a home game of the Farmington Clubs last Summer.

In his earlier days, he appeared in the leading roles of many operas and operettas staged by Farmington people.

Born in Farmington, Aug. 1, 1864, he was the son of David W. and Dorris Hillman Presson. His office here was closed this past Winter when he was taken ill.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Cora Presson Partridge of Augusta; and a brother, Alexander H. Presson of Farmington.

On Thursday, Patriots' Day, Farmington will pay final tribute to its first citizen and soldier at the American Legion Home. The home will be open to friends from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m. The Rev. Alfred J. Henriksen, pastor of the Unitarian Church, Augusta, will officiate at the services at 2 p. m.

Active bearers will be members of the Roderick-Crosby Post. The American Legion will conduct the committal rites at Riverside Cemetery.
