DAMARISCOTTA — Dr. Earle W. Pulsifer, 89, died May 22, 2001.

He was born in Abington, Mass., a son of Dr. Walter H. and Edna Marsden Pulsifer, and graduated from Hebron Academy and Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He served during World War II as assistant estimator for Bath Iron Works and damage control officer for the Atlantic seaboard. After the war, he returned to medical school, earning a dental degree from Tufts University, leading his class academically three of his four years there. On graduating, he was asked to return and teach two of the courses he had taken, but because he loved sailing and the Maine coast, he accepted an opportunity to establish a dental practice here in 1949. He moved his family to Damariscotta Lake and cofounded the Damariscotta Lake Association and the Congress of Lakes Association.

Dr. Pulsifer served as president of the Maine Dental Association during 1976 and 1977 and was secretary of the Mid-Coast Dental Society for 12 years. A member of the Academy of General Dentistry and the Pierre Fauchard Academy, he also was a member of the original group of professionals that set up the dental hygienist training program at Westbrook College.

He was a member of the Casco Bay and Wawenock Power Squadrons and the Masons, who presented him with a medal for 50 years of service.

Surviving are his wife of 60 years, Barbara Bailey Pulsifer; a son, Earle W. of Damariscotta; and a daughter, Judith Hunt of Newcastle.

All services will be private. Arrangements are by the Strong Funeral Home.

Max G. Pulsifer

remembered as a gifted family man

Max G. Pulsifer, 85, a musician and a carpenter, formerly of Greenwood, died Sunday at Seaside Nursing Home on Baxter Boulevard.

Mr. Pulsifer was a musician all his life, and he played violin in The Vagabonds, a local band, and also for Stanley Pratt's orchestra during the 1930s and 1940s.

PASSAGES

Each day the newspaper selects one obituary and seeks to learn more about the life of a person who has lived and worked in Maine. We look for a person who has made a mark on the community or the person's family and circle of friends in small but lasting ways.

Those groups performed at Granges and other dance halls around Oxford and Androscoggin counties. "I spent a lot of time in the Grange halls with him when I was a little girl," said his daughter, Sharon Leadbetter. "We played during family get-togethers. I played the piano and he played the violin, or his harmonica or his devil's fiddle. He loved to do jigs and reels, and old-fashioned square dance music."

"At the grange hall dances, he played in sets:

three waltzes, three foxtrots, a polka and then a square dance."

Mr. Pulsifer also played violin at Granges as a boy, accompanying his mother, who played the accordion.

For many years, he owned his own carpentry business, specializing in building and remodeling houses. "Back then he built the forms for the foundation and saw the construction of the house all the way through," said his daughter.

When the family moved to Yarmouth in 1933, he went to work for G. Gorton Sweetser as a carpenter and mason.

In 1942 he moved to Hebron and worked as superintendent of buildings and grounds at Hebron Academy, retiring in 1977. He continued to work part time as a tin snocker in the tin shop at the L. M. Lonsley hardware store in Norway. In that job he custom-made everything from tunnels to air ducts, and even a lot of dashboards and rocker panels for race cars at Oxford Plains Speedway.

Throughout his retirement, Mr. Pulsifer made his home on Hicks Pond in Greenwood, a family homestead since 1912. There he had a woodshop where he made and repaired wood products, such as coffee tables, birdhouses and wooden marimbas. He specialized for a while in restoring old player pianos. "He was a very gifted man, a wonderful family man," said his daughter. "One of his favorite things to do was to keep the gas can full so he could take the grandchildren out water skiing and fishing."

Born in Minot at the family home on Squirrel Hill Road, a son of Oscar and Carol Pearl Pulsifer, he graduated in 1931 from Mechanic Falls High School. He played violin in the school orchestra and sang in the choir.

He married the former Marion Campbell in 1935.

During World War II he worked at J. W. Penney Machine Shop in Mechanic Falls making parts for warships.

Mr. Pulsifer served on the Greenwood Planning Board, was a past master of the Masonic Lodge and a past patron of the Order of the Eastern Star, both in Mechanic Falls. He was active in the Congregational Church and its Men's Club and choir.

Surviving are his wife of Portland; a daughter, Sharon Leadbetter of North Yarmouth; a son, Melvin of LaMoure, N.D.; seven grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Visiting hours will be 4 to 8 p.m. today at Weston-Chandler Funeral Home, Mechanic Falls. A funeral service will be held at 1 p.m. Thursday at Hebron Community Baptist Church. Burial will be in Maple Grove Cemetery, Mechanic Falls.

He was born in Portland on Sept. 24, 1928, and lived most of his life in North Deering. His parents were Floyd (Beesley) and Ethel (Grammie) Purington. He worked 35 years for ADT installing and repairing alarm systems. He built his home in North Deering on Jackson Street and his camp on Little Sebago Lake where he and his wife Elaine raised their four children.

Over the years he held various part-time jobs including: St. Johnsbury Trucking Company, Sugarloaf Security and Harris Evans. He was active in the community, President of the Lyman Moore PTA, and a member of Cornerstone Lodge and Kora Shrine Temple.

He was a sports enthusiast and enjoyed playing on local baseball and softball leagues, as well as coaching Little League, and he was a league bowler. He taught many how to snow ski and water ski, water skiing himself until he was in his late 60s. He was a founding father of the Wakemakers' Ski Club, and taught handicapped skiing for a number of years. After retiring, he took up golf and was proud to have achieved a hole in one at Poland Springs Golf Course. He took great care in feeding the birds at home and at the lake. He was also well known for his gift of playing horseshoes and his special moonlight cruises.

He is well loved and held in hearts and memories forever as a special friend and #1 Grampy to children and puppies.

He was predeceased by his brother, Raymond Purington. Survivors include his wife of 57 years, Elaine W. Purington of Windham; his son Stephen Purington and his wife Alice of North Berwick; his three daughters, Karen White and partner Ed Getty of Gray, Lisa Jordan and her husband Wayne of Gray, and Susan Marean and her husband Stephen of Gray.
