Harry E. Ring Jr.

Bath city manager

6/24/77

BATH — Harry E. Ring Jr., 84, of Snow Park, a former city manager of Bath, died Tuesday at Winship Green Nursing Home following a short illness.

He was born here, a son of Harry E. and Lena B. Calderwood Ring Sr., and attended local schools. In 1932 he graduated from Morse High School, where he excelled in basketball and baseball. He graduated from Bentley School of Accounting, Boston, in 1935 with a degree in accounting.

On June 28, 1941, he married the former Beatrice I. Morrison in Auburn and they had made their home in Bath since that time. Mrs. Ring died in 1988.

During World War II Mr. Ring was employed as a clerk in the procurement department at Bath Iron Works, where he remained until March 1946, when he became city clerk in Bath. In November 1961 he became city manager as well as city clerk, and he continued in this position until retiring Dec. 1, 1972.

"He was a very nice man, very accommodating and he worked hard," said Dr. Herbert T. Caverly, who served several terms on the council, including from 1968 to 1970.

Caverly said without Ring, Bath probably would not have separated its sewage and storm runoff, something Ring advocated well before it became the norm and required by federal mandate.

Mr. Ring was "the old style manager," Caverly said. "He was laid back. He knew the council and knew the people. He was a local man. He made an effort to get along with everybody and near as I could tell, he did."

He was a member of the United Church of Christ Congregational.

He was also a past president of the Bath High School Alumni Assoc. and a past trustee of the Morse High School Scholarship Fund.

He was a past master of Solar Lodge of Masons and a incorporator of the Bath Savings Institution.

Mr. Ring was interested in all local sports programs, and loved music from the 1940s and singing in his church choir.

Surviving are a son, Paul D. of Pemaquid Beach; a daughter, Mrs. Stephen (Joyce) Wilson of Bath; six grandchildren; and seven great-grandchildren.

Visiting hours will be held from 7 to 9 p.m. Friday at David E. Desmond Funeral Home, 638 High St., with a Masonic service at 7 p.m. A funeral service will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday at United Church of Christ, 150 Congress Ave. with Rev. Bill Bliss and Mark D. Wilson officiating. Burial will be in Oak Grove Cemetery.

SOUTH PARIS, Aug 13 (Special)—Perley F. Ripley, 69, one of the leading businessmen of Maine, prominent in Maine banking circles and for years engaged in the automobile business in Portland, Bridgton, South Paris and Norway, and principal owner of the Falmouth Hotel, Portland, died this morning in a Lewiston hospital.

His long association with the automobile business included the Cook-Ripley Company in Portland, Ripley and Fletcher at Bridgton and South Paris and the Norway Buick Company. He had served as president of the Maine Automobile Association and held high office in the American Automobile Association.

He was one of the founders of the Maine Publicity Bureau and has served as president of the Paris Trust Company and the Paris Building Association, a director of the Oxford County Agricultural Association and director of the Chapman Bank & Trust Company of Portland.

In spite of his many business associations, he was keenly interested in Maine fairs and racing and from the early days of the automobile had been an advocate of good roads, safety and other automobile problems.

He was a member of the Knights of Pythias and Paris Lodge of Masons, Kora Temple Shrine at Lewiston and Paris Grange.

He was born at South Paris in 1875 and had always resided here except for one Winter when he resided in Portland to be near his business.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Mary Newell Ripley, to whom he was united in marriage in 1906; a half-sister, Mrs. May Tuttle of South Paris; and two half-brothers, A. Guy Bennett of Toronto and Stanley Bennett of Bridgton.

Funeral services will be at 2.30 p.m. at the Congregational Church here. Interment will be in Riverside Cemetery.
