Cousin for his wife

Fidelity 11-136 Baltimore, Md

Camden, June 27—Word was received here today of the death late Friday night in the Turo Hospital, New Orleans, La., of Col. Ernest A. Robbins, president and publisher of the Camden Herald, veteran of the last World War and one of the men who aided in forming the American Legion.

Col. Robbins, who would have been 65 years old Monday, had gone South last Winter for his health, having suffered from a heart ailment. Until three weeks ago had been reported as feeling better. He had been visiting at Hammond, La., when his condition became unfavorable and he was taken to New Orleans.

Hamilton Hall of Camden will fly to New Orleans to bring the body to Baltimore, Col. Robbins' birthplace, for burial in the Loudon Park cemetery. Arrangements for the funeral will be announced and friends are requested to omit flowers.

Born in Baltimore

The son of Ernest Ames and Emily Stephenson Robbins, he attended the Marston School in Baltimore, after which he toured Europe on a bicycle. Later he entered the insurance business, which he followed until the last war.

A member of the Maryland National Guard, he served in the Mexican border war in 1916. When the United States declared war against Germany he went overseas as a major on the staff of Gen. Summerall and he was with the Army of Occupation in Coblenz, Germany, for six months after the war.

On being mustered out as a colonel, he returned to the United States, where he was active in the organization of the American Legion.

Resident Since 1923

Col. Robbins was twice married, and some years after the death of his first wife, Mrs. Edith Robbins, he married

Mrs. Cora Carter Hall of New Orleans, who was with him in that city at the time of his death.

Summer residents of Camden, Col. and Mrs. Robbins in 1923 purchased the 63-year-old Camden Herald from the Jessie Ogier estate and became permanent residents here. Col. Robbins was widely-known in Maine weekly newspaper circles.

He was a member of the Maine Press Association, was affiliated with the Masonic Orders, and was a former Rotarian.

Surviving besides his wife are a step-daughter, Mrs. Anne Proctor of Lincolnville; a step-son, Hamilton Hall of Camden; four step-grandchildren, Mattina Proctor, James H. Proctor, 2nd, Mary Borden Hall and William Douglas Hall, and a cousin, Mary Busey of Frederick, Md. A son, Horace Robbins, died a few years ago of injuries suffered in an automobile accident.
