Special Despatch to Sunday Telegram

Conway, N. H., Jan. 30.—Arthur L. Roberts died suddenly Wednesday night at his home after an illness of several weeks.

Mr. Roberts was one of Conway's best-known citizens, having been in trade in Conway Village for many years. He was a native of Conway and was born in 1870, the son of John and Sophia Roberts. Except for a few years in Sebago, his life has been spent in Conway. He was twice married, his first wife being Miss Kate Jacobs who died in 1925. Ten years ago he married Flora Hill.

When a young man he learned the stone cutter's trade and worked at Redstone for many years. For a few years he was at Smith's Mill and 16 years ago, bought the store of Hobson and Eaton in Conway, later acquiring the Hobson Block which is now known as the Roberts Block.

He was a commissioner of the precinct and a member of the Masonic Lodge at Standish and of the Swift River I. O. O. F., of Conway. Besides a widow he leaves an adopted daughter, Mrs. Carroll Hill, and one brother, Ruel Roberts of Portland. Funeral services were held at the Congregational Church today with the Rev. Charles Moorhouse and Rev. J. G. P. Sherburne in attendance. Interment was in the village cemetery.

WINTHROP - Carleton L. Roberts, 80, longtime owner and operator of Roberts Funeral Home here, died Monday at a local nursing home after a long illness.

Mr. Roberts worked in the family's funeral business for more than 50 years, retiring in 1984. Although Roberts Funeral Home was the main business, the family also ran a furniture store, a bottled gas concern and an ambulance service at different times.

PASSAGES

Each day the Press

Herald selects one obituary and seeks to learn more about the life of a person who has lived and worked in Southern Maine. We look for a person who has made a mark on the community or the person's family and circle of friends in small but lasting ways.

Mr. Roberts' great-grandfather, William Love Roberts, started the family tradition, working as an undertaker in Canton, according to his son, Terry B., who is the fifth generation to run the funeral home. 2-24-1992

Sometime in the second generation, the business was moved to Readfield, but the funeral home there burned in 1922 when a fire swept through Readfield Corner, then the Read-field business district. After that, they moved to Winthrop.

Born in Readfield, a son of Eben S. Douglass Roberts, he graduated from Hebron Academy, attended Colby College and graduated from the New England Institute, Boston. During World War II, he was an officer in the Medical Corps of the Maine National Guard.

He was a 40-year member of the Winthrop Fire Department, a 50-year member of the Temple Lodge of Masons, a longtime member of the former Winthrop Flying Club and a member of the American Pilots Association. He belonged to Sportsman's Alliance of Maine and the National Rifle Association and was a past member of the Maine and National funeral directors associations.

Besides his son, he leaves his wife of 58 years, Lucille Perry Roberts, also of Winthrop; three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

A funeral will be held at 1 p.m. Friday at Roberts Funeral Home. Burial will be in the spring in Glenside Cemetery.
