HERBERT EUGENE SARGENT

Herbert Eugene Sargent, 100

STILLWATER Herbert Eugene Sargent, 100, died peacefully at home on April 9, 2006.

He was born in Alton, on Feb. 22, 1906, the only son of Grace (Stormann) Sargent and James Butman Sargent. He attended schools in Alton and Old Town and graduated from Milo High School as president of the class of 1925. In 1926 he entered the Engineering College at the University of Maine in Orono. After attending college he bought a gravel truck with his uncle and father and began his successful venture into the construction business. He founded H.E. Sargent Inc. and Central Equipment Company. He was a partner in Central Maine Flying Service. He and his companies constructed many highways and airports throughout northern New England. He always attributed his success to his many loyal employees. He was a devoted family man who loved spending time with his children and grandchildren. He lived his life with honor and humility, caring very much about others, especially young people. He was the first president of the Old Town City Council and served as Chairman of the Old Town School Board. He was a member of the Federated Church of Stillwater, a member of the Old Town-Orono YMCA Board and a charter member of the Old Town-Orono YMCA Heritage Club. He was on the Board of Directors at the Merchants National Bank, a founding member of the Maine Community Foundation Board of Directors, a member of St. Joseph's Hospital Board, and on the Presidents Council of the Eastern Maine Medical Center. He was a member of the American Road Builders Association and the Associated General Contractors of Maine. He was an active member and past president of the Orono Old Town Kiwanis Club, an honorary Chair of the United Way Campaign, and on the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee of United Way. He was a Mason and Shriner

GORHAM - Vaughn L. Sargent, 83, of 271 Fort Hill Road, who was deputy superintendent of the Maine Correctional Center for 15 years, died Sunday at a Portland hospital after a long illness. 11-10-1991

Mr. Sargent, who retired from the South Windham facility in 1973, was an employee of the state correctional system for nearly 30 years. He believed deeply in rehabilitation and spent his career helping inmates to turn around their lives, said his daughter, Holly T. Sargent, of Watertown, Mass.

Vaughn L. Sargent
change," she said.

Mr. Sargent joined the Department of Corrections in 1945, shortly after he completed his Army service in World War II. He began as a counselor at the Boys' Training Center and joined the correctional center as a parole officer in 1946.

"He often said that people should be treated with respect," she said. "People had made mistakes, but that didn't mean they were bad or evil or they should be treated in an inhuman way.

"He definitely believed that people should have a chance to

Mr. Sargent was born in South Portland, a son of Frederick and Georgia Cash Sargent. He attended local schools and graduated from South Portland High School in 1927.

For many years, he was a professional musician, playing in combos at local dances and parties and traveling with the Jay Short Orchestra. He also taught saxophone, but was forced to give up music in 1963 after an injury.

He was an avid fisherman who rarely missed an opportunity to get out on Sebago Lake, his family recalled. He enjoyed gardening and each year produced plump, red strawberries that "were the best in his part of the state," said Holly Sargent.

He could also tell a story that inevitably ended with a humorous twist. "He liked to laugh and make other people laugh," his daughter said.

In 1980, he was named the Lions Club's Citizen of the Year. He was a member of the state Parole Board, Eagle Royal Arch Chapter, Presumpscot Lodge of Masons, Kora Temple Shrine and the Gorham Methodist Church.

Besides his wife and daughter, he leaves three sons, Courtney R. of Vienna, Va., David H. of Walnut Creek, Calif., and Derek V. of Boscawen, N.H.; five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

The Maine Mason just arrived for Bernard Sass.

This is to advise you that he died on May 12, 2000 in Jacksonville, FL, and was buried in Bangor, Maine on the 16 day of May. His Masonic fellowsip was always very important to him, and to me, too. His Lodge in Maine assisted with the burial services.

Please remove his name from your mailing list. Thank you for your help.

Bridgton, April 9—David C. Saunders, 91, Bridgton's last Civil War veteran and long connected with the business life of the community, died this morning at his home here. He had been in failing health for several months. Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the Congregational Church.

Mr. Saunders was born in Waterford Feb. 4, 1843, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey Saunders. Early in the Civil War he enlisted in the 17th Maine Infantry, serving in many of the principal battles of the war, including Gettysburg. In 1913 he attended the 50th anniversary of the battle. He cast his first vote for Lincoln in 1864 while at home on a furlough.

Coming to Bridgton in 1874, Mr. Saunders was for many years engaged in the merchant tailoring business here, retiring some years ago from active work. He was prominent in the Masons, which he joined 67 years ago, at Waterford, later taking a demit to Oriental Lodge in this town. He served as prelate of both the lodge and Oriental Commandery, Knights Templar, officiating in this capacity at funeral services of nearly 50 members of the order. He was made an honorary member of the lodge a year ago. He was also a member of Cumberland Lodge, I. O. O. F., and Highland Lodge, K. of P. He was the last surviving member of Farragut Post, G. A. R., which he had served as commander. He had been conspicuous at Memorial Day and other patriotic observances for many years.

Mrs. Saunders died several years ago. Mr. Saunders, who was the last of five brothers and three sisters, is survived by several nieces and nephews.

Perry Oliver Rd

Orrin Saunders, 85, of Perry Oliver Road died Dec. 11, 2000, at his home.

He was born in Quincy, Mass., a son of Vincent C. and Dora Needham Saunders, and graduated from Quincy High School in 1933. He worked for a local finance company and was a supervisor at a commercial laundry in Cambridge, Mass.

Orrin Saunders

On Aug. 31, 1940, he married Helen Hussey of North Berwick. In late 1942, he enlisted in the Army, and was discharged three months later to join the Merchant Marine. He was a radio operator on the merchant ship Lou Gehrig, shuttling troops and supplies to Europe and taking part in the D-Day invasion. Mr. Saunders moved to Wells in 1948, where he was a self-employed upholsterer, operated a fish market and delivery business in North Berwick and working for the Goodall-Sanford mills. He later worked in quality control-for Simplex Wire and Cable, Newington, N.H., Portland Copper in South Portland, Westinghouse Electric in Pittsburgh and Bendix Corp.'s Aerospace Systems Division in Ann Arbor, Mich., as vendor quality assurance manager responsible for Apollo lunar experiment packages.

Mr. Saunders retired in 1980 from the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor.

In Wells, he was a special police officer, a member of the Wells School Committee, town moderator and town Civil Defense director.

He was a 50-year member of the Yorkshire Masonic Lodge and a longtime member of Wells Congregational Church, where he was a deacon.

He built the home here where his family grew up and to which he retired.

Besides his wife of Wells, he leaves a daughter, Barbara Matile, of Amesbury, Mass.; two sons, David of Biddeford and Robert of Kittery; a sister, Dorothy Starrett, and a brother, V. Carl, both of Scituate, Mass.; and seven grandchildren.

Mr. Saunders was an anatomical donor whose body will be used for medical research at the University of New England in Biddeford. A memorial service to celebrate his life will be held later. Arrangements are by Bibber Memorial Chapel.
