George E. Shalhoup 8/20/93 veterans' counselor, tennis booster

SANFORD — George Elias Shalhoup, 94, of Old Post Road died Wednesday at the Greenwood Center.

Born in a village in the Bekaa Valley of Lebanon, a son of Elias and Hannah Bshara Shalhoup, he emigrated with his family in 1914 at age 9 and became a U.S. citizen in 1928. He attended Sanford schools and lived here all of his adult life.

George Shalhoup

He attended various Army schools during World War II including Cooks and Baker School, Fort Bragg, N.C., and received special training in combat intelligence at Camp Ritchie, Md. He saw combat in North Africa, where he specialized in intelligence among Arabic speaking people in Morocco, Algeria and Tunisia. He was discharged in 1945 as a staff sergeant.

Mr. Shalhoup returned to Sanford to continue work at Universal Shoe Co. and other shoe industries in Maine and New Hampshire until Sanford named him a veterans' guidance counselor. For two years, his office helped some 2,000 returning war veterans and their families with Veterans Administration claims.

PASSAGES

Each day the newspaper selects one obituary and seeks to learn more about the life of a person who has lived and worked in Maine. We look for a person who has made a mark on the community or the person's family and circle of friends in small but lasting ways.

He also served on the York County Selective Service Board for more than 21 years. He received certificates of appreciation from Presidents Eisenhower, Kennedy and Johnson.

Mr. Shalhoup was a member and past commander of the American Legion in Sanford, where he worked to organize programs and observances of patriotic holidays and was awarded lifetime membership. He was also a 45-year member of the Sanford Lodge of Elks and a 44-year member of the Preble Masonic Lodge.

He played tennis into his 91st year and also swam, biked, hiked and was a mountain climber. For his work with local tennis, especially the senior citizens groups, the courts next to Sanford Junior High School are named for Mr. Shalhoup.

Another hobby was cooking different Lebanese foods.

He wrote an autobiography that was printed and bound for relatives celebrating his 85th birthday. A copy also was presented to Goodall Library, Sanford.

His stepson, David Jowett, died in 1993.

Surviving are his wife of 33 years, Helen Flint Shalhoup of Sanford; one brother, Michael A. of Nashua, N.H.; and one sister, Rose M. Abbott of Sanford.

A visiting hour will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday at Heald Funeral Home, Springvale, followed by a funeral service at 2 p.m. at the funeral home with the Rev. Warren Hedrick officiating.
