Thomas Smiley, 79, many years one of Portland's leading merchants and prominent in civic affairs over a long period, died early today in a hospital here, where he had been a patient since May 3. Until his last illness he had continued active in the Thomas Smiley Company, of which he was president and treasurer, and had also been in touch with other interests of a civic and welfare type.

Funeral services will be at 10.30 a. m., DST, Thursday, in the State Street Congregational Church and interment will be at Benton Falls.

Born at Winslow, Mr. Smiley when a child removed with his family to Benton Falls, where he spent his boyhood and early manhood. His first business venture was at Norway, where 56 years ago he opened a small store, successful almost from the start. Later he conducted a store at Clinton, Mass., for five years, subsequently becoming interested in stores at Caribou, Bridgton and Lewiston.

Locating in Portland in 1902, Mr. Smiley opened a shirtwaist store at 493 Congress Street, gradually expanding the business until 1912, when he went into partnership with Frank D. Folsom under the name of the Folsom-Smiley Company. He bought out his partner's interest in 1913 and the store has since been known under its present name. After operating the business as a department store for some years, he gradually reduced its departments, and for many years operated it as a specialized women's apparel shop.

Mr. Smiley was one of the prime-movers in the founding of the present National Bank of Commerce, of which he was first vice president and a director at the time of his death.

He was a 32nd degree Mason, a member of Portland Commandery, Knights Templar; the Portland Rotary Club, Portland Chamber of Commerce and the Portland Club. He was a director of the Cumberland County Public Health Association and on the board of the Cumberland Loan & Building Association. He was a member of the Norway Congregational Church and attended the State Street Church here.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Minerva French Smiley; a sister, Mrs. Boyden Lunt of Dover, N. H.; two brothers, Joseph of Dover and David of New York City; a niece, Miss Ruth Smiley of Dover, and a nephew, Oaksman Smiley of New York City.
