Gould Memorial Hospital, The United Way and the Chamber of Commerce. He was elected President of each of these organizations. Bud was also a Rotarian in Presque Isle, through his entire business career and into retirement. Always, he took a leadership position, serving as president and as an active member of Rotary projects, particularly the annual auction to benefit the A.R. Gould Memorial Hospital. He was recognized for his efforts and for his commitment to the ideal of rotary, "Service above Self," by being awarded the Rotary Paul Harris Fellowship, an acknowledgement reserved for a distinguished few. Bud's passion was the game of golf, and he became heavily involved in establishing a course in Presque Isle. He served as a long time board member, president and was continually a key fund raiser for the Presque Isle Country Club, where he nurtured and entertained many, many friends through the vagaries of their game. Bud was also active in the Upper St. John Valley Seniors Golf Association for several years. He was accomplished enough at his sport to win Senior and Super Senior Championships at both PICC and the USJV Seniors. Bud and Alice have been long time active members of St. John's Episcopal Church, where they were married. Over the years, he served on many vestries and was again a significant fund raiser for the church that was such a big and important part of his life. He truly loved the people of St. John's. Bud Survant was indeed a community leader, an effective businessman, wonderful mentor and above all, a kind and gentle man deeply cherished by his family and friends.

Calling hours will be 7-9 p.m. Monday, May 10, at St. John's Episcopal Church, Second Street, Presque Isle. Funeral services will be held 11 a.m. Tuesday, May 11, at the church with the Rev. Robert Smith officiating. Interment will be in Fair-

PAUL E. "BUD" SUSI JR.

PITTSFIELD -- Paul E. "Bud" Susi Jr. died Tuesday, Dec. 5, 2006, at Seabasticook Valley Nursing Home following a long period of declining health.

He was born in Pittsfield on Aug. 15, 1928, the son of Paul E. and Mary D. (Cianchette) Susi.

Paul graduated from Maine Central Institute in 1946 and attended the University of Maine at Orono. In 1951, Paul married Betty Roberts of Turner. They recently celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary.

In addition to his wife, Betty, Paul is survived by his three children, Mark Susi and his wife, Kathi, of Pittston, Wendy St. Clair and her husband, John, and Michael Susi and his wife, Debra, all of Pittsfield. He was the proud grandfather of seven grandchildren, Dana Peppard and her husband, Ike, Matt Susi, Josh St. Clair, Jamie Meservey and her husband, Boyce, Andrew St. Clair, Michael Susi and Meredith Susi, and his great-grandsons, Parker and Josh. He is also survived by his brother Robert Susi and his sister, Marlene Clark Paul.

He was predeceased by his parents and his sisters, Emma Arena and Janet Valente.

Paul was a construction contractor his entire working life. He was the owner of Susi Construction Corporation, which he sold to Tilcon in 1983. He went on to work in the business until this past year, doing what he'd always enjoyed, when ill health forced him to finally retire. He was a member of Associated General Contractors and Maine Good Roads.

Paul was a lifelong resident of Pittsfield and was dedicated to his community. Always active in local politics, he was the first mayor of Pittsfield, serving from 1971 to 1975. He was a member of Kiwanis and the Masons. His greatest joy was watching his grandchildren grow, and he spent many hours on the sidelines and in the bleachers. He was an avid sports fan who especially loved to hate the Red Sox. His hobby was any good home work project where he could demonstrate his ability to swear and bleed at the same time, while sharing his knowledge with the younger generations.
