GERALD M. TABENKEN

Gerald M. Tabenken

PORTLAND - Gerald M. Tabenken, former resident and business leader of Bangor, died on April 13, 2006 at Maine Medical Center in Portland.

He was born in Portland on Oct. 31, 1922, a son of Harry and Leah (Maisel) Tabenken. His family moved to Bangor when he was eight years of age where he attended grade school. He was a graduate of Hebron Academy in 1940, and was a member of the fabulous Class of '44 at the University of Maine.

Following graduation from the University Mr. Tabenken served in the U.S. Navy and was a member of the V12 program at Bates College. Following World War II, he did graduate study at Ohio State University and Northwestern University in Illinois.

In 1954, he was married to Ruth Goldberg of Ashland, Mass., who was a source of inspiration and support for him for the remainder of his life.

Mr. Tabenken was a well-known and respected businessman in Bangor for many years. He was president of the Tabenken Corporation, a wholesale distributor and importer of wine and malt beverages; Tabenken Trading LTD; and Tablease, Inc., He was also chairman of Wine Marketing, International in San Mateo, Calif. In recent years he served as vice president for government affairs of Bio Defense Corporation of Lexington, Mass.

In 1977, Mr. Tabenken was elected president of the National Beer Wholesalers Association, then headquartered in Chicago. He was the moving force of a major reorganization and revitalization of NBWA, including its relocation to Washington, D.C., and the establishment of closer working relationships with the brewing industry, which honored him in 1980 as Man of the Year for his achievements in articulating and promoting the shared concerns of the beverage industry.

In 1978, he was unanimously elected to a second term as president of NBWA, the only person in the history of the Association to serve two consecutive terms as president. He traveled extensively on behalf of the Association and worked tirelessly on industry issues and interests during his two years as president of NBWA, which recognized him for his dynamic and innovative leadership with a Lifetime Achievement Award in 2001.

Mr. Tabenken's interests were many and wide-ranging, including international trade, economics, world and national affairs, and the arts.

Gerald M. Tabenken

He served as a member of the president's advisory committee for the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts; the President's Commission on Executive Exchange; the White House Task Force on Small Business; and in 1980 he was appointed by President Carter as the President's Special Ambassador to Saint Lucia in the West Indies.

His avocation was politics, and he served as Maine Campaign Chairman for President Jimmy Carter, Senator George Mitchell and his dear friend, Edmund S. Muskie.

Obituary

Wallace E. Tainter, aged 53, died Tuesday, Nov. 24, at his home here. He had been in ill health for nearly two years, and a few months ago underwent an operation. For several weeks he seemed to be gaining, but about a month before his passing he suffered an ill turn and gradually failed.

Mr. Tainter lived in Brooklin his entire life. As a young man he was engaged in yachting. For the past twenty-five years he had been caretaker on the Morrill Goddard estate, where he served efficiently.

He will be greatly missed in the community. He was a good citizen, a helpful neighbor, contributing liberally to charity and always accommodating when called upon for assistance.

He was twice married, his first wife the former Fannie Freethy, who died in 1936. Of this union four children were born, one, Lois, dying at an early age. Four years ago he married Mrs. Claribel Staples, who survives him, and who faithfully and tenderly cared for him during his illness.

He was a devoted member of the Brooklin Baptist church and a member of the Naskeag Lodge, F. and A. M., of which he was past master, and Minnewaukin Chapter of Royal Arch Masons.

The funeral was held in the Brooklin Baptist church, Friday, at 2 p. m., Rev. James Neely, of Sedgwick, officiating. There was also a Masonic service. The flowers were many and beautiful, silent testimony to the love of many friends.

Besides his wife he leaves one son, Wallace, jr., two daughters, Mrs. Effie Keefe and Mrs. Rita Tapley, two stepdaughters, Mrs. Leon Cousins and Miss Catherine Staples, one brother, Pearl, two sisters, Mrs. Mary Cousins and Mrs. Lessie Henderson, three grandchildren, one uncle, George Tainter, two aunts, Mrs. Idella Hill and Mrs. Celesta Redman, and several nieces and nephews.

The bearers were Ralph Willey, Leslie Mitchell, Cleaves Clapp and Roy Bowden. Interment in the family lot at Brooklin.

Those from out of town attending the services, were: Mr. and Mrs. Leon Cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Tainter, jr., of Providence, R. I., Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Byard, of Kittery, and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Tapley of Southwest Harbor.
