NORMAN J. TEMPLE

Norman J. Temple

PORTLAND -- With a heart full of love and a life filled with compassion for his fellow man, Norman J. Temple died on Oct. 10, 2006, in the arms of his family. True to nature's credo, he left this world in better condition than when he found it.

Norm was born in Brooklyn, N.Y., on June 30, 1921, to Norman J. and Grace Hall Temple. After his mother's death in 1924, his father married Marie Bloomfield, who raised Norm along with four brothers and three sisters in Rahway, N.J.

Norm graduated from Rahway High School in 1940, and then entered Bates College. He was a member of the debate team while he worked his way through with various jobs including college news writer and photographer. Norm left Bates to join the Army Air Corps, serving as a B-24 pilot with 34 missions over Germany. He also served as 446th Bomb Group briefing officer and Assistant Group Operations Officer. Discharged in October 1945, he returned to Bates, graduating Magna Cum Laude and Phi Beta Kappa in 1947. In 1946, he was a member of the debate team sent to Great Britain on a six-weeks tour of major universities in Scotland and England.

Following graduation he joined the Bates faculty as Acting Director of Debate and instructor in public speaking during the sabbatical leave of famed Bates debate coach Brooks Quimby. For two summers he worked as Waterfront Director of the Maine State YMCA Camp on Lake Cobbosseecontee in Winthrop. He later became Associate State Secretary of the YMCA, forming non-building Y work in rural areas in and around Dexter, Dover Foxcroft and Guilford while spending summers as Director of the State Y Camp.

After six years he left the YMCA to join the Maine Development Commission doing state publicity and industrial development under founder Everett Greaton.

In 1956, he joined Central Maine Power Company and was elected vice president in 1966.

He retired from CMP in 1984, and served as governmental affairs consultant and Washington, D.C. lobbyist for both CMP and Maine Yankee. As a tribute to Norm, CMP named its annual golf tournament after him.

Norm was State Commander of the Military Order of the World Wars/State of Maine Chapter; vice president of the State YMCA of Maine and Camp Committee; advisory board member of the Pine Tree Council, Boy Scouts of America; director and member of the

MURRAY STENCHFIELD TENNEY JR.

Murray Stenchfield Tenney Jr., 76

WESTBROOK -- Murray Stenchfield Tenney Jr., 76, of Falmouth died very peacefully, Friday, Jan. 26, 2007, after a short illness with his family at his side. He was born on April 19, 1930 in Mechanic Falls, the son of Mary E. (Richmond) and Murray S. Tenney Sr.

Murray worked as a press man and plate marker for the Portland Press Herald for over 40 years. He belonged to the Maine Mechanics Association, the Maine Mineralogical & Geological Society, the Tenney Family Association, and the North Deering Congregational Church. He was Past Vice-Commander of American Legion Post #164 in Falmouth and was very active in the Masons. He belonged to Deering Lodge #183; Order of the Eastern Star - Deering Chapter #59 OES; the York and Scottish Rites; and was a Kora Temple Shriner in Lewiston.

Murray enjoyed talking with others and was not shy about sharing his opinions. He truly was a unique and one-of-kind person. Another hallmark of Murray's was his generosity toward others in need, known and unknown. Murray loved to spend time at his camp by the water, the company of his cats, and his family.

Murray is survived by his daughter Linda Tenney of Massachusetts; his son John of New Gloucester; his sister Ruby Hutnak of Rhode Island; and grandchildren, Erika Tenney and Austin Tenney.

There will be a memorial service on Saturday, Feb. 10, 2007, at 1 p.m., at the American Legion Post #164, 65 Depot Road, Falmouth, with a reception following. Burial will be in the spring at Blanchard Cemetery in Falmouth.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Murray's memory to:
