Tripp, 69, of Raymond, died at his home on Wednesday, August 21, 2002, after a long battle with lung cancer.

He was born on November 8, 1932, in Mechanic Falls, a son of the late Albert M. and Margaret Albion Tripp. He graduated from Windham High School in 1952, and would have celebrated his 50th high school reunion Saturday, August 24, 2002.

He served in the Navy for eight years after high school (active duty and reserves). He spent his entire working career of 46 years at Dielectric Communications, where he served in a variety of positions, including production control manager and master scheduler.

After his first retirement from a manufacturing role at Dielectric, he operated the company's cafeteria, "Charlie's Café." He formed many lifelong friendships with his colleagues there.

The quality that most defined Charlie was his strong commitment to, and love for, his family.

He married Rosemary Simmons in 1955, and they enjoyed 47 years of marriage. He loved his children and grandchildren very deeply, and was extremely proud of all of them. It was his love for his family that gave him the strength to endure five different rounds of chemotherapy and two operations. He could usually be seen holding one of his grandchildren on his lap, watching a Red Sox game with them, or wheeling them in a cart at the grocery store. Until his illness, he never missed an event in which his children or his grandchildren were involved. Camping in Bar Harbor with the entire family was a summer ritual for over 35 years.

He imparted many gifts to his family, including a strong faith, a love of music and singing, his quick sense of humor, and a strong love for our country. He valued education very much, and provided a strong example to his family by attending night classes over a period of many years to obtain his college degree at the University of Maine. He had an incredible gift for writing poetry, and his family and many of his friends were frequently the subjects of his verse. He was most happy at home, sitting outside basking in the sun.

Charlie also was very committed to his community. As a Mason, he was a member of the Presumpscot Lodge 127 AFAM. He served as Deacon of the Raymond Village Community Church, taught Sunday School, and for many years you could count on Charlie as a helper at the monthly church suppers. He performed in town variety shows to raise money for community projects. He was a Little League coach, leading his team to the local championship in 1976.

He is survived by his wife, Rosemary S. Tripp; a daughter, Vicki and her husband Scott Gordan, and their daughters, Alexandra and Cassandra; a daughter, Denise Pulkkinen, and her children, Kristi, BJ, and Chad; a daughter, Jacqueline and her husband Mark Latham, and their daughters, Olivia and Sophia; a son, Maj. Charles H. Tripp, Jr., and his wife Barbarella, and their children, Johnathan, Gabrielle, and Joseph; a person whom he referred to affectionately as his fourth daughter, Becky Anderson; a special friend who became like a son to him, Daniel Jockett; a sister, Jean Thurlow; a brother, Roger N. Tripp and his wife Doris; a brother, Michael B. Tripp; and several nieces and nephews; An older brother, Albert M. Tripp, Jr.; and a sister, Alice Deane, predeceased him.

There will be no visiting hours. A memorial service will be held at Raymond Village Community Church, Main Street, Raymond, Maine on Sunday, August 25, 2002 at 2 p.m.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made in Charlie's name to Raymond Village Community Church.

ORVILLE K. TRIPP

ASHLAND - Orville Kenneth Tripp, 78, passed away with the dignity and respect deserving of an honorable man, Feb. 19, 2005, at the Aroostook Health Center Skilled Care Unit in Mars Hill, after a courageous but brief battle with cancer. He was born Nov. 27, 1926, in Casco, the son of Arthur C. and Gertrude (Small) Tripp.

Orville attended school in Poland, Maine, and graduated from Edward Little High School in Auburn in 1945. After serving in the U.S. Air Force, he attended the University of Maine at Orono, graduating in 1951 with a BS degree in Forest Management. He worked for a short time with the U.S. Forest service in Bangor and Rutland, Vt. In 1952, he went to work as a forester for Great Northern Paper Company where he worked for 35 years, retiring in 1987 as district manager. He was a 47-year member of the Pioneer Masonic Lodge No. 72 AF & AM of Ashland. He was raised to the degree of Master Mason in 1958 and was Past Master in 1964. He was a member of the Union Congregational Church of Ashland having joined with his wife, Phyllis, on April 7, 1963. He served as vice president and member-at-large on the Executive Committee for many years.

Orville enjoyed traveling with family on many motor home camping trips, seeing and learning from all he experienced, including visits to The Badlands, Mount Rushmore, Gettysburg, the Gaspe' Peninsula, Prince Edward Island, Nova Scotia, Cape Breton, and Ontario, to cross over at Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan. He also took trips by car to Colorado and Niagra Falls. He enjoyed vegetable gardening and growing various kinds of flowers but especially enjoyed his prized rose garden. Many life, it was a daily labor of love filling the many bird feeders in his backyard, even creating a maze of paths all winter with the snow blower to be able to reach his feathered friends. As an animal lover, with many birds, cats and dogs, he was known to rescue dogs from the shelter. Two of his favorites were beagles; one with vision problems and one with hearing defects. Orville also did woodworking and made beautiful furniture for his children to take home with them. He was an avid golfer, and in 1990 scored a hole-in-one at the Portage Hills Country Club. He was awarded a lifetime pass to the North Maine Woods, an honor, as only 35 are issued at any one time. Never one to boast about his accomplishments, he was a private and humble man.

He is survived by his son, John Tripp and wife, Maureen, of Scarborough; four daughters, Marlene Jimmo and her husband, Richard Sr., of Ashland, Sharon Newhouse of Presque Isle, Cathy Gallant and her husband, Michael, of Waterboro, Barbara Tomaselli and husband, Michael, of Salem, N.H.; seven grandchildren, Vicki Jo Elbrecht and husband, Duane, Richard Jimmo Jr. and wife, Laura, Jodi Reese and husband, Everett, Alyssa Hoggatt and companion, Doc Manning, Jason Hoggatt, Amanda² Gallant, and Nicole Tomaselli; seven great-grandchildren, Heather and Patrick Jimmo, Emily and Gabrielle Reese, Lucas and Dylan Manning and Ethan Elbrecht. He is also survived by three sisters, Ruby Tripp and Beverly Tripp, both of Poland, and Patricia Newyear of Corpus Christie, Texas. On Oct. 13, 2004, Orville was predeceased by his beloved wife, best friend and companion, Phyllis F. Tripp of Ashland, whom he married on Oct. 18, 1952. He was also predeceased by his parents; and two brothers, Carl Tripp and Donald Tripp.

Relatives and friends may call at the Union Congregational Church, Sheridan Road, Ashland, 6-8 p.m. Monday and 12:30 p.m. until time of service Tuesday. A funeral service will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the church, along with a Masonic memorial service. A reception to share memories and friendship will follow in the church hall. Donations in his memory may be made to the Presque Isle Humane Society,
