John W. Tyler, 79

EAST WILTON — John W. Tyler, 79, of East Wilton, died Friday, Dec. 6, 2002 at his family farm on the East Wilton Road, where he was born on August 21, 1923, a son of Arthur and Vivian (Beedy) Tyler.

John received his education in East Wilton schools and earned his GED. For many years, he was employed by the Maine DOT. He also worked in the woods in logging operations and drove a local oil delivery truck.

On Dec. 13, 1947, he married Barbara Hobbs. She died Christmas Day of 2001.

John was a lifelong member of the Wilson Grange, East Wilton, and was the past master of the Wilson Grange #321. He was also a member of Excelsior Pomona, State and National Granges. He was a member of the Wilton Masonic Lodge #156, where he was a past master of the lodge. He was past high priest of Franklin Chapter RAM, past illustrious master of Jephthah Council of R and M, and member of the Pilgrim Commandry #19 of Farmington and Kora Shrine Temple.

In 2001, he received the Distinguished Farmer of the Year Award from the Franklin County Soil and Water Conservation Association. He dearly loved the family farm and could often be seen tending the beloved Belted Galloways. He took great enjoyment from attending all of the agricultural fairs and taking his cattle. He was a member of both the State and New England Belted Galloway Associations. Mr. Tyler was a life member of the Franklin County Fair Association and also was a member of the East Wilton Cemetery Association. He also served on the Wilton Finance Committee.

John was a people person who enjoyed the camaraderie of friends at the fairs, Grange meetings, Grange suppers, and evening card games. A favorite pastime was reading license plate numbers and determining if it was a good hand.

Always one to care about the needs of others, he was quick to organize people into action when someone was in need. His sense of humor, wit and wisdom will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved this man.

He is survived by two daughters, Sharon Ring and her husband, Dennis of West Bath, and Judy Hairsine and her husband, John of Gorham; a grandson, Dorian Melkonian of Stamford, Conn.; two granddaughters, Jasmyn Hairsine of Boston, Mass., and Jansen Hairsine of Gorham; two nieces, Theda Fairbanks and her husband, Richard "Dick" of Weld, and Priscilla "Poochie" Ross and her husband, Pete of Dryden.

He was predeceased by his wife and a sister, Elinor "Ellie" Williams.

Funeral services and committal prayers will be held Tuesday morning at 11 a.m. from the Wiles Funeral Home, 136 High St., Wilton, with the Rev. John Tolman officiating. Family and friends are invited to visit from 5-8 p.m. Monday at the funeral home, where public Masonic services will be conducted at 7:30 p.m. by Wilton Masonic Lodge #156 of Wilton. Private burial will be in East Wilton Cemetery. Following services, all are welcome to attend a family reception at the Wilson Grange, Main St., East Wilton.

Memorial gifts may be given to the charity of one's choice.

KENNEBUNKPORT (AP) — Funeral services will be held Saturday for state Rep. Elmont "Monty" Tyndale, who was instrumental in the drive for a 200-mile fishing limit.

Tyndale, 80, died Thursday at his home after a lengthy illness.

A Republican, he served seven terms in the Maine House. In 1974, as chairman of the Save the American Fisheries Association, he led a flotilla of fishermen down the coast to Washington to dramatize the need for a national 200-mile fishing limit.

Tyndale, who served as assistant floor leader in the 101st Legislature, was a strong supporter of education and the retarded as well as the fishing industry.

A native of New York City, Tyndale came to Kennebunkport 26 years ago from Methuen, Mass., where he had worked as a lighting engineer.

He is survived by his wife, Alice. The funeral will be at 2 p.m. Saturday in the South Congregational Church.
