Past Eminent Commander Emery V. Varney of Freeport, whose 78th birthday anniversary occurs on Sunday, is a well known Mason and has a host of friends within and outside the Masonic circles. He has been a member of the Freeport Lodge since coming here several years ago, but he first joined the order when he was 23 years old at South West Bend in Durham. In 1874 he was a member of the St. Paul's Chapter, No. 14, Brunswick. He took the commandery degrees at Skowhegan in 1880, where he was a member of De Moley Commandery, No. 10, for some years. He is past commander of the Pilgrim Commandery of Farmington and a member of the Cora Temple. He is also an Odd Fellow.

Mr. Varney was born at South Durham, Aug. 17, 1846, the son of John and Maria (Hawkes) Varney. He commenced to learn his trade at an early age and became very proficient at shoeing horses. On his ninth birthday he made the shoes for and shod his father's mare. He was a blacksmith all his life. When he first began to work at what was to be his life work he had to manufacture the horse shoes and even the nails he made by hand.

He began work with his father at a small shop at South Durham and worked not only at horse shoeing but at general blacksmith work like making tires for wagons or sled irons. He afterwards conducted a shop at Brunswick for two years. In 1878 he opened a place for business at Farmington, where he remained until 1908, when he sold out, having accepted a position as foreman in the forge shop of a large automobile factory at Los Angeles, Cal. He remained there for six years, or until he came east in 1914 and opened a blacksmith shop in Freeport. He

Mr. Varney is married and has a cosy home on Main street, where he is fond of sitting on the piazza with his wife. He comments frequently on the increase in numbers of automobiles and very often he passes away the time by counting the number of cars that pass his house in a period of time.

sold out here and retired a few years ago, but found he could not remain idle so after the death of D. L. Dumphy he bought that shop and started again the business, from which he had apparently graduated. The horseshoers who can tell Mr. Varney anything he does not know about the business are few.
