APPLETON (Jan 9): Edward Merton Wadsworth Jr., 95, died Jan. 5, 2006 at Windward Gardens in Camden.

He was born in Camden on Feb. 28, 1910 and was the son of Edward M. Wadsworth Sr. and Dora (Wellington) Wadsworth. He was a 1929 graduate of Appleton High School. He married Alice Smith.

In the early 1940s, he worked at the Camden Shipyard when many classic wooden boats were constructed including the Betselma, the well-known 38-foot classic cruiser currently operating out of Camden during the summer months. He also worked at the Knox Woolen Mill for several years. He will most be remembered as the owner of the Village Store in Appleton, which he operated for more than 20 years. From 1965 to 1975, he served as the caretaker for the Pine Grove Cemetery in Appleton and was employed by the Union Fairgrounds Association.

He was a member of Masonic Lodge 31 in Union and the holder of the Boston

Post Cane for the town of Appleton. He enjoyed spending winters in Florida with his wife after he retired. He was very good with his hands and his hobbies included oil painting and building furniture and whirligigs. His family said he was known for being a bit opinionated. His photographic memory allowed him to recall and spontaneously make up nursery rhymes and poetry during conversation.
