Widow - Marian

Apt 224

Gainsville, FL 32609

GAINESVILLE, FLA. — Stanley B. Wallace, 83, died Friday, Oct. 18, 2002 at the Gainesville, Fla. Hospice Center.

- A curious mind never sleeps -

Born Dec. 18, 1913 in Fitchburg, Mass., son of Stanley B. Wallace, Sr. and Eva Small Wallace. He grew up in Bath and graduated from Morse High School, Class of 1932.

As a young man, he was employed by Saco-Lowell shops in Biddeford as a machinist, and later at a General Motors parts factory in Syracuse, N.Y. as a supervisor. Returning to Maine, Mr. Wallace worked as a shipfitter in the South Portland yards during World War II. Following the war, he operated a wholesale candy and tobacco business in Bridgton, serving small stores and summer camps in Western Maine. After selling the business, he became a licensed associate real estate broker in the Bridgton area. A career as a life insurance and mutual funds salesman followed and he later became manager of the Portland office. As a hobby and doing limited commercial work in photography, he did news filming for Portland TV stations and newspaper photos in the 1950's.

Mr. Wallace was a Masonic member of Oriental Lodge 13 in Bridgton. He held the office of Grand High Priest in the Royal Arch Chapter and a membership in Knights Templar, and became a Shriner in Kora Temple. He was past president of the Bridgton Chamber of Commerce and a Planning Board member. As a Congregationalist, he attended and ushered in Bridgton and Woodfords (Portland) Churches.

In 1979, he retired to Melbourne, Fla., later opening a flag company in Oklawaha. He moved to Gainesville in 1991.

He enjoyed golf, movies, books, family and friends. He excelled at Scrabble and won many awards at the Gainesville Scrabble Club. With the advent of computers, he, in his 80's became an avid user, e-mailing friends and relatives, and setting up a home page (www.afn.org/~stan) which received "visitors" worldwide, complementing him on his outstanding coverage of six mastered schooners and other Maine historical ship-building information. He was written about in USA Today and the Gainesville Sun as one of the oldest people to have a website. Soon he graduated to digital cameras, taking and developing pictures for friends and family. He made all his own greeting cards on the computer and never forgot a birthday. Always the entertainer, he held "movie night" weekly at the apartment residence where he lived, bringing folks together to enjoy a film.

Mr. Wallace is survived by his wife of 64 years, Marian "Minty" Jewett Wallace; a daughter, Carolyn Ann "Bunty" (Crotty) Wallace of Saint Augustine, Fla.; sons Robert Wallace and his wife, Susan Cowperthwaite Wallace, of Charlotte, N.C., and Dr. Richard Wallace and his wife, Kim of San Francisco, Calif.; seven grandchildren, Donald Edward Crotty of Cardiff-by-the-Sea, Calif., David Wallace Crotty of Maui, Hawaii, Johanna Crotty Maaghul of Mill Valley, Calif., Melissa Crotty Chaput of Portland, Nathan Wallace of Portland, Ore., Alanna Wallace Rich of Long Island, Maine, and Linus Wallace of San Francisco; and five great-grandchildren, David Maaghul, Olivia Maaghul, Phillip Maaghul, Zales Rich and Jack Joseph Chaput. He will be fondly remembered and missed by all.

Mr. Wallace, the oldest of seven children, is also survived by a sister, Verna Andrews of Cape Elizabeth. He was predeceased by brothers Jack and Elmer, and sisters Evelyn Wallace, Maxine Cahill and Frances Ward.

Donations in Mr. Wallace's memory may be made to the North Central Florida Hospice Center, 4200 NW 90th Blvd., Gainesville, Fla. 32606, or to Volunteers of America.
