Hiram A. Webber Dies At Brunswick

Brunswick, Oct. 13.—Hiram A. Webber, 73, retired Brunswick photographer, died this afternoon at his home on Pleasant Street following a long illness.

For more than 40 years he had been associated with his brother, Albert, in the operation of Webber's Studio here. A native of Lisbon Falls, Webber was born Oct. 30, 1872, the son of Edsell and Clementine Brown Webber and came to Brunswick half a century ago. He was president of the Brunswick Loan and Building Association from 1934 to 1937, and served as director many years. A 32nd degree Mason, he belonged to the York bodies and the Shrine, served as president of the Board of Trustees of the Masons and held Masonic offices for 50 years. In 1927 he married Annie Parsons who survives him.

Following the death of his brother some years ago, he continued operation of the studio, one of the largest in the state until failing health forced him to sell the business to Stephen Merrill nearly eight years ago.
