View/Sign Guest Book

JEFFERSON -- Walter "Whitey" White, 82, a resident of East Pond Road, died Monday, Aug. 28, 2006, at MaineGeneral Medical Center in Augusta after a brief illness.

Whitey was born Feb. 25, 1924, in Willimantic, the son of Walter and Gladys Patterson White, and attended Waldoboro schools.

A veteran of the Army, he served in the Fifth Army, 1st Armored Division, 1125th Armored Field Artillery Battalion, during the Rome, Arno, North Appenines and Po Valley Campaigns of World War II. He was a cryptographic technician and a Purple Heart recipient.

He was the founder in 1952 and co-owner of White and Bradstreet in Augusta, specializing in large-truck parts. As part of the business, he also operated a vehicle auction company and towing operation. After selling the business in 1995 to his son, Raymond, he still went to work daily at the shop until July, when his health started to fail.

Whitey was always willing to do what he could for everyone and you knew you could always count on him to be there when you needed him. He was known to have a quick wit and a good sense of humor.

A dedicated Mason, he was a member of the Bethlehem Lodge 35 A.F.& A.M. in Augusta, and a past high priest of Cushnoc 43, Royal Arch Chapter in Augusta. He was one of the founding leaders of the Capital City Chapter, Order of DeMolay, in Augusta, during the mid-1960s. While active in DeMolay, he received the Cross of Honor and the Honorary Legion of Honor.

Whitey was a member of the Unitarian Universalist Community Church in Augusta, and enjoyed hunting and NASCAR racing.

Survivors include his wife of 57 years, Arlene Nash White; two sons, Raymond White and his wife, Marion, and Roger White and his wife, Tina; and two grandchildren, Matthew White and Marissa White, all of Jefferson.

Visiting hours will be held from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 31, at the Hall Funeral Home and Cremation Center, 949 Main St.,

SCARBOROUGH - Herman H. Wibe, 90, of 202 Payne Road, a pattern maker and cabinetmaker who worked at numerous crafts, died Sunday at Mercy Hospital, Portland.

5-11-1992
Mr. Wibe was a pattern maker for several manufacturing companies. His hand-crafted wood patterns were used to make molds for steel products.

He started at the former Carl McCann Corp., a long-ago fire engine manufacturing company in Scarborough.

"He made patterns for ladders, railings, bench seats and other equipment for McCann fire engines," said his son, H. Peter Wibe.

Later, Mr. Wibe worked for the Portland Company as a pattern maker of wheels, gears and other items.

PASSAGES

Each day the Press Herald selects one obituary and seeks to learn more about the life of a person who has lived and worked in Southern Maine. We look for a person who has made a mark on the community or the person's family and circle of friends in small but lasting ways.

For several years during the 1930s, Mr. Wibe owned and operated a Jenny gas station on the family property on Payne Road near Two Rod Road, at the original site of Scarborough Town Hall. His father, Hans P. Wibe, a Danish immigrant, owned 178 acres of woods and a hay farm there for many years.

The family property stretched from Payne Road all the way to Holmes Road, where Beech Ridge Speedway is now located. "Back then, it was a horse track," said Peter Wibe.

In the 1940s Mr. Wibe taught piano for a short while, and he retired as a maintenance repairman at the former Herman Shoe Co.

During his retirement, he continued to do cabinet work and repaired and restored antique furniture in his workshop. His collection of more than 150 kerosene lamps and other items prompted him to open an antique store there, which he ran for several years, according to his son.

He was born in Portland, a son of Hans P. and Marie Carlsen Wibe, and attended local schools, including the former Scottow Hill School.

Mr. Wibe was a longtime member of the Gov. King Lodge of Masons.

Surviving are his wife of 50 years, Ruth Wentworth Wibe; a son, H. Peter of Scarborough; a granddaughter and two great-granddaughters.
