Bowdoinham, July 30—Horace Whitney, 59, Topsham farmer, was killed by a Portland to Bangor passenger train this morning as he walked along the tracks two miles West of Bowdoinham Station.

Whitney was the owner of a cow killed by the same train Saturday morning and he was searching for two cows missing since Saturday which he believed also might have been struck by the train.

Hard of hearing, Whitney apparently did not hear the train approaching nor the warning shouts of Daniel Rogers of Topsham, who was with him but too far away to warn of the train's approach.

Dr. E. E. Pratt of Richmond, medical examiner, said death resulted from a fractured skull and broken neck.

The train was delayed 15 minutes.

Whitney was a past master of Village Lodge of Masons of Bowdoinham, a past worthy patron of the Eastern Star Lodge of this town and a past master of Topsham Grange.

He is survived by his widow, the former Elizabeth Waltman of Portland; his mother, Mrs. Joseph Whitney of Topsham; three daughters, the Misses Roberta and Persis Whitney of Massachusetts and Miss Sarah Whitney of Bowdoinham and two sisters, Mrs. Etta Jacobs and Miss Alice Whitney of Massachusetts.

He was born July 16, 1931, in Brookton, Maine, son of Leroy and Nellie (Lyon) Whitney. He graduated from Lee Academy, class of 1950, as salutatorian of his class. Dick married Donna M. Lyons, Feb. 15, 1958, in Lincoln.

Dick was very much a sports enthusiast all his life. In school he was on the cross country team, and played baseball and basketball for the Brookton Town Team. He had an opportunity to try out for the minor league baseball school sponsored by the Boston Braves.

In his younger years, he was employed as a truck driver picking up milk in the Danforth area. He later worked for the state of Maine, Department of Transportation, as a highway laborer. He transferred to the Department of Agriculture as a produce inspector where he worked upon his retirement of 43 years. He enjoyed the sport of stock car racing; he had many stock cars that participated at Unity

Raceway, the track that he truly loved. He loved Unity Raceway so much that he became the track pit steward, announcer, and finally had the opportunity to manage the racetrack for Ralph and Nancy Nason of several years.

Dick cared for his community so much that he was the first selectman for 16 years until his death. He helped to create the ballfield at the Field of Dreams with the help of the Recreation Committee to obtain state grants to build the ballfield. He enjoyed snowmobiling. He and Richard Chase went into partnership to establish Dicks' Moto Ski. He tried his hand at being a dispatcher for the Waldo County Sheriff Department. He was a rural carrier for the Bangor Daily News.

Dick was an active member with the Star In The West Lodge No. 85.

Survivors include his wife of 44 years, Donna of Unity; two daughters, Kathleen Mattingly and husband, Ernie, of Troy, and Denise Whitney of Unity; four grandchildren, Brian Whitney and fiancée, Hillary Shibles, of Burnham, Cheryl Mattingly, William Mattingly and Ronald Mattingly, all of Troy; sister, Lorraine Bailey of Topsfield; several nieces and nephews; a special daughter, Cindy Jones and husband, Dennis, of Unity; a very special friend, John McKenney and wife, Becky, of Clinton. He will also be missed by his dog "Mutley."
