Raymond Edgar Wiley headed Associated General Contractors

SCARBOROUGH — Raymond Edgar Wiley, 77, the founder of Wiley Construction Co. whose hobby was aviation, died Saturday at Southwest Florida Regional Medical Center after a long illness. He lived at Woodrock Drive here, and during the winters in Fort Myers, Fla.

Raymond Wiley

Mr. Wiley founded Wiley Construction Co. in 1958, and was a prominent contractor during the 1960s and 1970s. He specialized in building schools and municipal buildings in central and southern Maine. Among his major projects were Portland Regional Vocational Technical Center on Allen Avenue in Portland, the Biddeford and Lewiston comprehensive high schools, and Bonny Eagle and Oxford Hills high schools. He was a past president of Associated General Contractors of Maine.

"He said he wanted to do something that would get him somewhere," said his wife, Gloria Ward Wiley. "He worked first in masonry, and did a lot of chimneys throughout South Portland, Scarborough and Portland."

With that experience in masonry, he decided to go into the business of building bigger brick and block structures.

PASSAGES

Each day the newspaper selects one obituary and seeks to learn more about the life of a person who has lived and worked in Maine. We look for a person who has made a mark on the community or the person's family and circle of friends in small but lasting ways.

A flight enthusiast all his life, Mr. Wiley always flew and maintained his own airplanes. That hobby enabled him to enjoy two of his other favorite pastimes, hunting and fishing. He loved flying his float planes into remote parts of Maine's northern woods and to northern Canada and Alaska. Mr. Wiley had a camp on Little Shallow Lake which was accessible only by air, and also built a cottage in Somerset County.

During his years as a pilot, Mr. Wiley had a few close calls. "Once he had to land on the turnpike in Massachusetts," said his wife. "That was in the 1960s. He ran out of gas."

He was a member of two national aviation organizations, the Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association and the Quiet Birdmen.

Mr. Wiley was selectman and town councilor in Scarborough. He was a charter member of the Scarborough Rotary Club and the Scarborough Masonic Lodge and a member of various other Shrine organizations.

A veteran of the Army Air Forces during World War II, his assignment was to teach young airmen how to fly.

He was a past commander of Libby-Mitchell Post 78, American Legion, where he was awarded the first life membership.

He also loved traveling, and had been to numerous countries in South America and the South Pacific. He went to Australia twice, said his wife, and had even been to that country's Outback, on the western coast.

He was born in Lewiston, a son of David Milton Wiley and Lottie Rena French.

His first wife, Loretta Archambault, died previously.

Surviving are his wife, Gloria Ward Wiley of Scarborough; a son, Thomas F. of Scarborough; a daughter, Norreen Wiley of Boynton Beach, Fla.; a brother, Myron E. Vickers of Madison; and several grandchildren.

Visiting hours will be held from 6 to 8 p.m. today at Jones, Rich and Hutchins Funeral Home, where a funeral service will be held at 11 a.m. Thursday.
