George H. Wilkins

Special Despatch to Sunday Telegram

Monson, Jan. 2.—Funeral services for George H. Wilkins, superintendent of the Portland-Monson Slate Company, were held at the home, Tuesday afternoon. The pall bearers were Adolph Holmbom, Patrick F. McGrath, Daniel H. Champion and Fred A. Hescok. Interment was in Hillside Cemetery. Mr. Wilkins passed away last Saturday evening after several years of failing health.

Mr. Wilkins was born in Winsor, P. Q., Feb. 19, 1862. He was schooled in his home town, in Richmond, and in Monson. At the age of 13 he came to Monson with older brothers and sisters and had lived here since except for a few years in Portland.

Soon after coming to Monson he engaged in the slate business and has followed that line of work all his life.

He was an authority on slate and was a genius both in the working of slate and wood. There are today many pieces of machinery in use that he invented.

More than 25 years ago he accepted the position of superintendent of the Portland-Monson Slate Company, which position he filled with honor and credit both to himself and to his company.

While living in Portland, he was a member of the Myles Standish Rifle Club and won many trophies and medals.

He was a member of Dorci Lodge, F. & A. M., and Euclid Chapter, O. E. S.

He leaves a wife, one son, Leon E. Wilkins; one sister, Mrs. John R. Flint; and two grandsons.

DAVID G. WILLEY

David G. Willey

GORHAM -- David G. Willey of Gorham passed away peacefully after a short illness on Thursday, April 26, 2007, at the Maine Medical Center in Portland, with his family surrounding him.

The son of Charles and Helen Willey, he was born in Portland on April 1, 1923, and graduated from South Portland High School in 1941, and attended the University of Maine at Orono. A veteran of the Army Air Corps in World War II, he flew 34 missions as the Engineer and top turret gunner (Technical Sergeant) on a B-17 at a time when the average life expectancy of a crew was only about 14 missions. It was his proudest accomplishment, and he was a familiar figure in Gorham, wearing his B-17 cap sometimes to bed, his family suspected.

One of his most anticipated activities was attending the frequent reunions of his bomb group with one or more of his adult children, especially the reunion in Kimbolten, England, where he was stationed during the war.

Dave was employed as a carrier at the Gorham Post Office from the 1950s until his retirement in 1986, and over the years combined that work with evening hours at Barden's Drug Store and more recently at Cook's Country Store, both in Gorham. He loved spending what spare time he had with family and friends, making special efforts to attend events in which his children and grandchildren were participating.

A 50 year member of Masonic Harmony Lodge #38 of Gorham, he was also a member of the Scottish Rite and the Kora Shrine Temple.

He is survived by three children, Richard A. Willey and his wife Kathy of Gorham, Judith W. Anderson of South Portland, and David Scott Willey of Standish; two grandchildren, Kimberly A. Willey of Portland and Shawn D. Willey and his wife Melissa of South Portland. His first great-grandchild, a girl, is expected in late July. He is also survived by his sister, Ruth McDonald of Bridgton; his brother, Gordon Willey of Annandale, Va.; and various nieces and a nephew. Dave was predeceased by his parents and his brother, Charles Jr. Animal family members who will miss him greatly are Cujo and Taz, Jack and Ziggy and Gracie.

Our thanks are extended to the Gibson Pavilion at Maine Medical Center and to the Maine Veterans Home in Scarborough for their warmth and assistance during his last days.
