

On May 27th, 2026, Paul Dunbar was inducted into the Alford Youth and Community Center's (AYCC) Hall of Fame - Class of 2026. This award recognizes dedicated & continuous support of children in the Waterville community. Here is what their CEO had to say in recognizing Paul...

Paul Dunbar exemplifies the true spirit of the AYCC's Unified Champions Club through his unwavering dedication, enthusiasm, and commitment to inclusion. He consistently attends Unified Champions Club events and actively engages in all program activities. Whether serving as a coach, partnering directly with athletes, or building meaningful relationships with athletes and their families, Paul's generosity of self makes a lasting and positive impact on everyone he encounters.

Paul's comforting energy and infectious enthusiasm elevate every experience, creating a welcoming and supportive environment for all participants. As a key contributor to the ongoing growth of the Unified Champions program, he regularly brings forward innovative ideas and demonstrates exceptional dedication by going above and beyond—offering transportation to ensure participation, encouraging athletes to step outside their comfort zones, and helping to create memorable, confidence-building experiences.

Paul is a member of both Siloam #92 and Waterville Lodge #33. He is a Past Master of Siloam Lodge #92. He served as an honorary co-captain for the Special Olympics Maine event in late 2023 and earned AYCC Volunteer of the Month honors in December 2024. Paul's actions reflect outstanding leadership, selflessness, and a deep commitment to empowering others, making him a highly deserving inductee into the Class of 2026 Inspirational Hall of Fame.

Paul was joined by his wife, Robyn, and their son and close friends and more than a dozen of his fellow masons from the 12th District to receive his award.
