BRENT ALLEN WHITEHOUSE

1946-2005

SIDNEY — Brent Allen Whitehouse, 59, of Sidney passed away unexpectedly on Thursday, Dec. 22, 2005, as a result of an unexpected heart attack.

He was born in Bath, New Brunswick, on July 8, 1946, and was the son of Howard and Vivian (Margison) Whitehouse. He resided in Knoxford, New Brunswick, with the family moving to Sidney in 1955.

He graduated from Waterville High School and Thomas College, where he gained a degree in business management. Brent had pursued employment after his training in Florida working as an accountant at a fertilizer company.

Upon return to Sidney, he worked for the state project consultants for the Department of Human Services. He then was one of the original owners of Hazel Green's Restaurant in Augusta and Concord, N.H., for which he gave his heart and soul until he sadly closed the doors in August 1991. (We all have shared many good and bad, happy and sad times at Hazel Green's in the span from 1974 when the restaurant opened until it closed!)

Prior to closing Hazel's, Brent had obtained his real estate license and worked for Ross, Rizzo and Hanna. He also worked for Venture Ltd. Realty and Benton Plastics. At the time of his death, he worked as an independent tax consultant and was treasurer of the Windsor Fair. He was instrumental in setting up and helping maintain his son's construction business.

A Mason, he was a member Kora Temple and the Elks.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by a son, Lance Whitehouse of Sidney; a stepson, Daniel Kibbin of Durham; a stepdaughter, Diane Kibbin of Windham; two sisters, Sharon Creighton and her husband, Robert, of Newport, and Beryl Sutherland and her husband, Clarence, of Lady Lake, Fla.; a niece, Tamara Nixon of Edmond, Okla.; a nephew, Sheldon Lane of Canaan; and several cousins.

Brent was a member of Blessed Hope Advent Christian Church in Waterville for many years. He enjoyed attending Lakeside Advent Christian Campground each summer, meeting many friends of old.

A memorial service will be held at 11 a.m. Friday, Dec. 30, at Blessed Hope Advent Christian Church, Waterville. Arrangements are by Redington Funeral Home, 5 Park St., Waterville.

Memorial donations may be made to Lakeside A.C. Campground, c/o Vicky Davis, 11 Eaton Pt. Road, Deer Isle, ME 04627.

Special Despatch to The Press Herald

Unity, June 21. —Fred A. Whitehouse, 74, long prominent in business and banking affairs in this town, died at his home here this morning, following an illness of six weeks, and funeral services will be conducted Wednesday at 2 p. m.

He was a native of Vassalboro and his parents moved to Unity when he was nine years old. In his early years he passed some time in the West and returning here, he established a pants factory. Later he became owner and proprietor of the Central House, which he operated for 25 years. With other townspeople he established the Maplewood Lumber Company in 1899 and this business still operates in the pulpwood and lumber trade and maintains general stores at Unity and Thorndike.

Mr. Whitehouse was railroad station master here for 16 years, was for a time general manager of the Unity Telephone Company and was influential in having electric power brought into town.

At the time of his death he had been retired for some years, but remained a director of the Maplewood Lumber Company and of the Waterville Savings Bank. He was a member of the Masonic bodies, including St. Omer Commander of Knights Templar of Waterville.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Rose May Whitehouse; three sons, Edgar and Robert of this town, and Fred H., a Deputy United States Marshal in Portland, and a granddaughter, Mrs. H. M. Geddy of Hilton Village, Va.
